Description

A huge display bowl...I say "huge" because it's so much larger than the ones we're used to seeing...From the 1940s...Made of cut blown crystal...With concave cut ribs....!And not with flat ribs like we're used to making...!With a solid silver band...Certified 925 and sterling...And featuring the moon and crown hallmarks...That is, 925/1000...Here, too, it's superior quality compared to standard production...!A substantial, very thick band...!In perfect condition...A few tiny scratches from use....But honestly, it's in top condition...From GERMANY...For your information, I'll add more photos a little later with the relevant details...!Weight... 6 kilos 200
