Description

A magnificent oil on canvas signed in the lower right corner by Léonce Martin Chabry, a French painter from Bordeaux, known for his landscapes imbued with poetry and light. A student of the Barbizon School and close to the great landscape painters of his time. This work depicts a woodland at twilight, imbued with a mysterious atmosphere and a beautiful sense of depth and perspective.

The brown and green tones, as well as the rendering of the cloudy sky, demonstrate the painter's mastery in depicting nature and its shifting light.
