Description

Art Nouveau flower necklace in 18 karat matte gold. Lovely Art Nouveau period necklace composed of three openwork, finely chased elements depicting a stylized botanical decor of fuchsia flowers. The central pendant supports a natural pearl drop, while chains adorned with natural pearls connect the elements together. This type of drapery necklace, highly fashionable at the turn of the 20th century, perfectly illustrates the fluidity of organic lines and the poetic repertoire of Art Nouveau jewelry, which broke free from classical symmetry to imitate the movement of nature. Antique necklace, France, circa 1895-1900. Eagle's head hallmark
