Description

Refined pair of still life paintings, oil on wooden panels, in carved and gilded wooden frames with painted white wood mats. Both paintings depict two vases with bouquets of flowers; one depicts a curtain, while the other features a glass. These paintings are remarkable for their stylistic rendering and use of color, which bring out the vibrant scenes. Both paintings are signed on the front by Valentino Ghiglia (1903-1960), a Florentine painter, and are among his finest works, as evidenced by the exceptional attention to detail. This pair of paintings exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class to any setting. Florentine manufacture, mid-20th century. Dimensions: H x W x D overall 76 x 87 x 4 cm; H x W works only 56 x 68cm
