Description

Vintage African impala shoulder trophy, depicting the head and shoulders of one of Africa's most elegant antelopes, mounted on a traditional wooden plaque. The trophy retains its original brass plaque engraved with "Mozambique 1966," attesting to its historical provenance and reinforcing its authenticity as a vintage safari trophy. The trophy depicts the animal in a natural pose, facing forward and turned slightly to the right. The impala's beautifully curved horns, alert expression, and distinctive markings have been carefully preserved, showcasing the grace and beauty for which this species is renowned. Mounted on a wooden plaque, the trophy reflects the classic style of safari decorations that were highly popular in the mid-20th century. The original
