Description

Cut crystal bowl with silver setting, Minerve 1st title -- France, late 19th century Centerpiece bowl featuring a thick crystal basin with a beautiful density, typical of late 19th-century French productions. The crystal is cut with clean, regular patterns, and the depth of the cuts attests to meticulous, non-industrial craftsmanship.The setting is made of solid silver, hallmarked Minerve 1st title, with a well-defined fluted base and an upper rim adorned with a fine beaded molding. The metal is clean, without any dents, and retains a beautiful tension in its lines. The piece is cohesive, balanced, and perfectly in keeping with Parisian production of the period.Dimensions:Diameter: 20 cmHeight: 14.5 cmOverall condition is very satisfactory: crystal intact, silver clean, no play between the
