Description

The 'Tubino' table lamp, designed by brothers Achille and Pier Giacomo Castiglioni for Flos in the 1960s and 1970s, is an example of functional and minimalist design. Crafted from black metal, it stands out for its simple structure and adjustable diffuser, allowing the light to be directed as needed. This iconic design, typical of the Castiglioni brothers' innovative creativity, fits perfectly into both modern and classic settings, adding a touch of elegance and practicality. Its refined finish makes it an ideal complement for workspaces or home environments, where targeted lighting is essential. The lamp is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the actual condition of the lamps as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are not clear from the photos, the
