Description

The Holy Family - 17th Century Oil on canvas Dimensions: 85 × 102 cm A beautiful painting depicting the Holy Family, created in the 17th century and attributed to the school of central Italy, between the Marche and Umbria regions. The composition is balanced and harmonious. In the foreground, the Virgin is depicted in a gesture of profound maternal tenderness as she cradles the Child, while Saint Joseph observes the scene with a contemplative air. Angelic figures and the infant Saint John appear on either side, enriching the sacred narrative. The color palette is warm and soft, with diffused light shaping the faces. The landscape in the background, typical of the Central Italian tradition, lends depth to the scene. A work of intense spirituality, ideal for classical settings but
