Description

19th-Century School Pair of Landscapes, Oil on Panel
A charming pair of landscapes painted in oil on panel, works from the 19th-Century School. The compositions depict two complementary views: one showing a lively coastal landscape with cliffs overlooking the sea and figures on the shore, the other a rolling landscape traversed by a path winding through trees and rocky outcrops. The works are distinguished by a luminous palette and a delicate touch that sensitively convey atmospheric effects. Presented in their richly molded wooden and gilded stucco frames decorated with scrollwork and foliage. Visible dimensions: H. 23 cm × W. 30 cm
Dimensions including frames: Period: 19th century. Technique: oil on panel. Condition: good overall condition, slight signs of wear on the
