Description

Oil on canvas depicting a view of the BosphorusLate 19th A beautiful oil on canvas depicting a lively view of the Bosphorus at dusk. The composition features boats in the foreground sailing on calm waters, while in the background an oriental city is silhouetted, dominated by its monuments and domes. A bridge with elegant arches spans the river and draws the eye toward the buildings bathed in warm, hazy light.The artist has sensitively captured the reflections on the water and the poetic atmosphere of this maritime scene, using a palette of golden, bluish, and rosy tones. The loose, luminous brushwork lends the work an evocative charm reminiscent of late 19th-century Orientalist landscapes.The work is presented in an elegant gilded wooden frame decorated with rocaille motifs in the
