Description

A magnificent 19th-century Orthodox icon depicting the Deesis. A very beautiful piece that has retained its superb colors. Moscow School--19th century The Deesis, meaning "intercession," is an iconographic theme particularly prevalent in the Byzantine Church; it depicts Christ in glory, seated on a throne and holding a book, between the Virgin Mary and Saint John the Baptist, whose hands are outstretched toward Christ as they intercede with him on behalf of humanity. Shipping available to Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our 2,500-square-meter showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
