Description

The Antique Paintings - Cat Portraits category presents a charming oil on panel painting depicting a small portrait of two curious kittens at play, dating to the late 19th century. This refined animalier portrait portrays a delicate domestic scene featuring two young cats: one emerging from a wicker basket, the other caught in a playful pose with a ball of yarn. The composition is executed with remarkable pictorial sensitivity and meticulous attention to detail, typical of animal painting between the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The skillful use of warm light, soft tonal transitions, and the realistic rendering of feline fur give the artwork a strong decorative and emotional appeal. The antique painting is signed lower left A. Roy. Aimée Roy (XIX-XX secolo) a minor French painter
