Description

A vibrant kilim from Mut, located in the Taurus Mountains in southeastern Anatolia. Woven from hand-spun wool on a wool warp. The weave is very fine and tight. The piece is supple and surprisingly light. Deep, luminous colors derived exclusively from plant dyes. The color palette and composition are characteristic of early production from the Mut region. Motifs of flowing water and nomadism, as well as protective motifs featuring wolf's muzzles and stylized eagle's wings symbolizing freedom. Scorpions appear within the central section. In short, the diverse thematic range of ancient Anatolian kilims... Circa 1920 Perfect condition Dimensions: 146 x 115 cm Laurent Beauty of Kilims
