Description

An attractive antique Japanese lacquer covered box.

The rounded body and cover are decorated on a finely speckled gold-brown ground with repeated sixteen-petal chrysanthemum imperial mon alternating with peony blossoms and scrolling karakusa foliage.
The box is larger than a traditional tea caddy (chaire) and was most likely a zubako / kobako type or a kashiki.
The presence of the Imperial Mon suggests this may have well been once a gift from a member of the Japanese Royal family.Height: 9 cm.Condition: A few chips on the edge of the lid, as well as two visible flaws, outlined in red in the photographs.SOLD WITH A CERTIFICATE OF
