Description

This imposing decorative billiards/snooker table, measuring 3.66 m x 1.83 m (12 feet x 6 feet), is crafted from Cuban mahogany and features exquisite carvings on the frame, legs, and rails. Crafted by John Thurston in 1894 for a client in Guildford, Surrey, this table is a testament to exceptional craftsmanship, both in the woodwork and the construction. We have a copy of the original invoice, which attests to its Louis XVI style. Each carved leg is adorned with a decorative panel, replicated on the edges of the rails in the form of a small carved boss. A motif of ovals and darts runs along the top and bottom of the table. The mahogany rails feature a section of slate integrated into their inner edge, which gives them great sturdiness and improves the ball's responsiveness, this table is simply magnificent.
