Description

Painting executed by Mino Maccari (1898-1989) in 1966, titled "Signorina."

This work represents an interesting example of Mino Maccari's mature production.

The composition depicts a young woman in the foreground, accompanied by two figures in the background, rendered through the artist's characteristic synthetic and expressive visual language. The rapid, textured brushstrokes, combined with a palette of earthy, green, and blue tones, give the work a strong emotional intensity and a suggestive theatrical atmosphere.

in the lower right corner, the painting retains on the reverse of the original frame a label and two stamps from the Galleria d'Arte La Chiocciola in Padua, elements that document its provenance. Good condition.
