Description

A large and beautiful oil on panel measuring 70 cm x 106 cm plus wooden frame depicting The Port of Marseille signed lower left by Gilbert GALLAND. Born in 1870 in Lyon, died in 1956 (according to Bénézit) in Algiers. Painter of genre scenes, typical subjects, lively landscapes, seascapes, and mural compositions; watercolorist and decorator. He was a student of Hippolyte DUBOIS and exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français in Paris. He produced numerous watercolors of the city of Marseille and its Old Port, as well as views of Brittany, Algeria, and the Far East. French and foreign transatlantic shipping companies commissioned him to create murals to adorn the lounges, dining rooms, or cabins of ocean liners. Free shipping within the European Union. 500 EUR for international
