Description

A beautiful antique Art Nouveau box made of polychrome porcelain, with a charming four-leaf clover shape; its lid is adorned with a lovely floral female face, in the style of the faces depicted by Alphonse Mucha, a characteristic motif of the Belle Époque.* Late 19th century, early 20th century *This porcelain, of very fine quality, is the result of exceptionally delicate craftsmanship. On the reverse is the "Corona" signature, highlighted by a coat of arms featuring the intertwined letters "VS" surmounted by a crown, alongside the letter "M," the engraved form number 3723, and the stamp of a shop in Geneva.
