Description

A Louis XVI chest of drawers made of solid oak, dating from the late 18th century. It features three small drawers at the top and two wide drawers at the front. The upright sides end in tapered, chamfered legs, characteristic of the Louis XVI style. The top is made of wide oak planks with a beautiful antique patina. This chest of drawers has retained its original structure, with its original side panels and solid wood back. The brass lock plates harmoniously adorn the front. An authentic piece with simple and elegant lines, ideal for a classic or contemporary interior. Delivery in Metropolitan France: EUR180. Contact us for more information.
