Description

A long necklace in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle-head hallmark), featuring a harmonious sequence of oval links in a forçat-style chain alternating with delicate circular filigree motifs. Each decorative element features a double circle, the center of which is adorned with fine openwork filigree. This original design stands out from traditional filigree jewelry, which is typically crafted in elongated or teardrop shapes. Thus, the filigree lends the piece an antique character, while the round, streamlined shape of the links gives it a decidedly contemporary aesthetic. The regular repetition of the circular motifs creates a particularly harmonious visual rhythm, giving this necklace a understated elegance that transcends trends. The warm hue of yellow gold and the simplicity of its design make
