

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Scepter Of Chief Luba, Katanga, Congo - From The Collection Of Charles Mahauden - Collected Between

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Height : 38

Description

Luba chief's scepter topped with a carved bust--Wood with a beautiful, antique brown and honey-colored patina
Provenance: Collected in Katanga (Belgian Congo) between 1952 and 1970 by Charles Mahauden, a Belgian colonial administrator nicknamed "Kisongokimo" by the Grand Chief of the Balubas and author of: "Charles Mahauden -- Kisongokimo -- Hunting and Magic Among the Baluba" -- Paris -- Flammarion, "L'Aventure vécue" Collection -- 1965 -- 252 pages
A Belgian colonial administrator and wildlife conservationist, Charles Mahauden lived in Katanga for over 40 years. He became famous for his close ties with the Luba people, his writings on their hunting traditions, and his collection of African tribal art
Democratic Republic of the Congo - Luba

Dealer

Galerie NAKKAYA

Art - Antiquités - Objets de Collection - Trésors oubliés

Mobile : +33 6 26 73 09 29

Clamart 92140

PeopleIn excellent condition, this rare example of African primitive art comes from a historic field collection in KatangaHeight: 38 cmPayment Methods: Credit Card, Bank Transfer, or PayPalCareful shipping with tracked package within 24-48 hoursPickup available in the Paris area