Description

A very fine Limoges porcelain dinner service from the Haviland factory, "Vieux Paris Vert" pattern. Designed by the artist Rouard for Haviland, the "Vieux Paris Vert" collection draws inspiration from the decorative styles of Parisian porcelain manufacturers of the late 18th century, most often featuring garlands of gilded leaves, laurel wreaths, and blue and ruby-colored cornflowers. A green, embossed shagreen ribbon and two gold fillets embellished with wolf's teeth complete this graceful and particularly well-balanced composition. "Vieux Paris Vert" is characteristic of the designs that made Limoges porcelain famous in the 20th century. This 107-piece set for 12 people consists of the following:-12 dinner plates, diameter 24.6 cm-12 soup bowls, diameter 19 cm-12 cheese plates,
