Description

Oil on canvas by the Livorno painter Giulio Da Vicchio (the artistic name of Giulio Rontini, 1925-2004), signed lower right and titled "Mercato" on the reverse. The painting depicts a lively market scene, one of the artist's most characteristic subjects. A group of women gathered around market stalls creates a dynamic composition filled with movement and everyday life. The brushwork is bold, expressive and textured, capturing the atmosphere rather than focusing on descriptive detail. A warm and vibrant colour palette enhances the sense of vitality and human interaction. The son of the painter Ferruccio Rontini, Giulio Da Vicchio adopted his artistic name to distinguish himself from his father. He developed a style deeply rooted in the Post-Macchiaioli tradition of
