Description

Art Deco-style pastel portrait of "Woman with a Fox Terrier," signed "J Cermais" in the lower right and dated "37," by Charles Boucher Cermaise, a French artist of the first half of the 20th century known in particular for his intimate portraits; he exhibited, notably, at the University of Houston in the United States, where he enjoyed great success. This portrait, dated 1937, depicts a woman dressed in yellow sitting in an armchair, affectionately holding her fox terrier on her lap; This work exudes great tenderness and a subtle charm, enhanced by its meticulous composition and delicate details, such as the coral cabochon ring the woman wears on her right hand. This painting is preserved in its original carved, gilded, and patinated wooden frame; as indicated by the label on the back, it was featured
