Description

Watercolor on paper, 19th century, signed lower right (signature difficult to read). The composition depicts the Virgin Mary seated, wearing a pink dress and a blue cloak, holding the Baby Jesus on her lap. The work is distinguished by the finesse of the drawing, the delicacy of the skin tones, and the transparency of the colors--all characteristics of meticulous execution. Framed with an antique mat. Some foxing and yellowing of the paper, slight wear, and minor imperfections on the mat. Signature difficult to decipher.
