Description

A superb collectible Art Deco planter by Verlys France, adorned with the famous "Les Poissons" motif. Crafted from frosted, satin-finished molded glass, it features an elegant underwater scene in which finely detailed fish swim among aquatic plants and bubbles, all rendered in sharp relief.Shell-shaped handles, placed on either side, enhance the planter and give it a sculptural and harmonious silhouette. The frosted finish beautifully highlights the delicacy of the motif, allowing light to play across its surface and underscoring Verlys's exceptional craftsmanship.Designed during the golden age of French Art Deco, the "Les Poissons" collection remains one of Verlys's most admired and recognizable motifs, prized by collectors for the delicacy of its marine depictions and its
