Description

Tuscan chest of drawers, lacquered and painted to simulate burr wood. Late 18th century. 118.5 x 54.5 x h 88 cm. Two-drawer chest entirely lacquered and painted to simulate burr wood, with a herringbone-effect grain pattern on the front and sides. The top features a central diamond motif within a painted border, executed with the same decorative technique. Dark fillets articulate the edges of the top, drawers, and sides, giving the piece a neat, neoclassical character. Original gilt-bronze handles and escutcheons. Square-section tapered legs. Condition report: Overall good state of conservation. Minor signs of wear and small losses to the painted surface, consistent with the age of the piece. All shipments within the EU are free and professionally packaged. This item is sold with a legally valid
