Description

An Empire-style side table dating from the 1970s, featuring a richly ornamented gilded bronze base and a magnificent veined green marble top. Inspired by the grandeur of the First Empire, this refined piece combines classic motifs, noble materials, and an exceptional decorative presence. The circular, veined green marble top offers a luxurious contrast to the warm tones of the gilded bronze. The base is adorned with finely chiseled eagle heads, one of the most iconic symbols of the Empire style. Associated with power, authority, and imperial grandeur, the eagle was widely used in the decorative arts during the reign of Napoleon Bonaparte. The sculptural bronze base features elegant proportions and meticulous details, reflecting the influence of early 19th-century French furniture while
