Description

This elegant little console table, crafted from mahogany and mahogany veneer, captivates with the perfect harmony between the nobility of its wood, the depth of its gray marble top, and the delicacy of its bronze ornamentation. The piece stands out for its belt-style drawer, subtly integrated into the front, whose gilded bronze trim immediately catches the eye: it depicts two gracefully draped young women holding a large bouquet of flowers, in a delicate and refined composition that evokes imperial symbolism and aesthetics. The piece rests on two slender, perfectly proportioned front columns, whose chiseled bronze capitals add an extra touch of sophistication, while the more understated rear legs provide discreet and elegant stability. The console thus displays a balanced silhouette, where
