Description

A stunning animated seascape depicting boats battling rough seas under a heavy, stormy sky. In the foreground, a sailboat rears up into the waves, its hull crashing through the foam with striking energy. To the left, a steamship plows through the swell, its plume of smoke mingling with the low-hanging clouds and heightening the dramatic tension of the scene. On the horizon, a lighthouse standing on a pier provides a visual anchor, contrasting with the fury of the elements. The highly dynamic composition captures the precise moment when the sea, the wind, and the vessels clash in a powerful ballet. The brushwork is lively and generous, executed in impasto strokes that catch the light and powerfully convey the movement of the water. The palette, dominated by steel blues and ochres, lends the entire work an authentic and immersive atmosphere. The work is signed in the lower left corner and presented in an antique gilded wooden frame, richly carved with foliage motifs, which underscores the nobility of the subject and enhances the pictorial presence of the scene.Period: Early 20th centuryGood conditionShipping upon quoteDimensions:Width: 81 cmDepth: 6 cmHeight: 62 cmReference: 594V<https://www.antiquites-lecomte.com/boutique/cadres-et-tableaux/tableau-entree-du-port-par-mer-agitee-huile-sur-toile-signe-c-demont-debut-xxe/>
