

Royalist Torch-shaped Candleholder With Fleur-de-lis And The Coat Of Arms Of The Kingdom Of France

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Height : 26.5

Description

Antique silver-plated bronze candelabrum, restored. The base is attached to the shaft by a threaded rod and consists of two distinct parts. The base features a rare decorative motif along its rim: a circular frieze alternating between fleurs-de-lis and royal crowns. The shaft is topped by a globe bearing the coat of arms of the Kingdom of France, surrounded by laurel wreaths. Condition: silver plating shows no wear; presented without a candlestick base and formerly electrified
