Description

A superb Louis XVI period mahogany dining table, circa 1800, measuring 4m75 long with 8 feet the table and the extensions have a frieze which gives the table a superb silhouette. This is rare as very often the extensions are only wooden planks withou tfriezeThe table has 8 legs, which is important given its large size, ensuring stability and sturdiness.A very beautiful table featuring Louis XVI straight legs ending with castorsSuperb proportions that are visually pleasing.The table has 5 solid mahogany leaves with frize. Both the table and the five extension have a superb flameThe table and its five mahogany extension have been hand polished in our workshops. It can therefore be displayed without a tablecloth and features a superb patina.In perfect condition.The height below the
