Description

A pair of portraits--a woman and a man painted in medallion format. The woman is richly dressed in an evening gown featuring lace, embroidery, and jewelry, with her hair styled in the Fontange style, while the man is dressed in a simple velvet dressing gown but is nonetheless wearing a wig. On the reverse side, the surnames of the subjects are visible, along with the date 1715. It appears that the male subject may have been a "Protestant pastor," as indicated on the back of the canvas. Paintings on their original canvases, on which previous restorations have been carried out. Later period frame, likely from the Louis XVI era. Shipping within France: 30EUR Shipping within Europe: 50EUR Shipping to North America: 80EUR
