

Seat Made Of Veined Gray Marble, 19th Century; Shaft, Support, Column, Base, Pedestal, Base

1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

Height : 95

Description

Chair made of heavily veined gray marble, 19th century. This stool features a simple and balanced design, consisting of a molded top resting on a shaft with projecting panels, embellished with scalloped cutouts and finished with a square, molded base. Fixed three-part assembly (stable). Some chips from normal wear. Dimensions: Height: 95 cm, Width: 22.5 cm, Depth: 22.5 cm. On view in Issy-les-Moulineaux, near Paris. Additional photos available upon request. Shipping available within France and internationally upon request for a quote. Saddle base, column, pedestal, gray marble, veined marble, 19th century, sculpture, bust, antique furniture, decoration, Neoclassical.

Dealer

Ars gratia artis

Peintures, sculptures, archéologie

Mobile : 0612513529

Issy-les-Moulineaux 92130