

Pair Of Hand-carved Art Deco "throne" Armchairs Featuring Eagle Motifs

1 400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 70

Width : 70

Height : 120

Description

Stunning, handcrafted "throne" armchairs (eagle motif) - An iconic pair from the Art Deco era. Enhance your interior with this unique and spectacular pair of "throne" armchairs adorned with hand-carved eagles. These majestic pieces are not mere furniture; they are true sculptural works of art that command attention. Crafted from solid wood, each armchair is meticulously carved to depict a powerful eagle, with intricate detailing of the plumage on the high backrest and slender armrests. The base of each chair features the eagle's talons firmly claspng a coiled snake, creating a base that is both striking and symbolic. The deep, rich hue of the wood highlights the artisan's exceptional craftsmanship and lends a warm, sophisticated presence to your home, office, or gallery. Artisanal Craftsmanship:

Dealer

ROCAILLE

Decorative Antiques

Mobile : 0033780709315

Fbg des Cordeliers

Pezenas 34120

Exceptional carved details, from the precise rendering of the feathers to the striking realism of the talons. Majestic design: A bold and symbolic aesthetic, ideal for creating a focal point in a luxurious living room, an office, or as part of an eclectic collection. Sturdy construction: Solid and durable craftsmanship, designed for both display and everyday use. Collector's item: A rare pair that adds a touch of grandeur and unique character to your interior decor. These armchairs are in good original (vintage) condition. As these are hand-carved pieces made of natural wood, they feature the unique character and slight variations in grain and color typical of handcrafted work. Please view all the high-resolution photos to appreciate the finesse of the carving and the condition of the pieces.