Description

We are pleased to offer for sale this superb five-piece French living room set, originally from a château; it is a remarkable set of antique furniture that will bring elegance and charm to any room. The set includes a gilded Louis XV-style sofa, a pair of armchairs, and a pair of chairs, all upholstered in durable floral fabric. The set is mounted on casters, making it easy to move. The upholstery is in good condition, and the gilded frame is sturdy; it has a few chips and marks on the gilding, as well as a slight patina from wear that gives this furniture its unique character. Made in France between the early and mid-19th century, this rare set is in its original condition, although it may have been reupholstered at a later date. It seats up to seven people and is distinguished by its curved backrests (known as "cabriolet" style). No assembly is required; the sofa measures 180 cm in length, 68 cm in depth, and 112 cm in height. The armchairs measure 100 cm in height, 68 cm in width, and 60 cm in depth. The chairs measure 55 cm x 55 cm x 97 cm, with a seat height of 50 cm. This living room set is ideal for anyone looking to add a touch of historic charm to their home or professional space. Condition Report Beautiful hand-carved gilded frame, showing a few scratches and touch-ups. The fabric is in good condition, as is the frame, which remains sturdy.
