Description

Beautiful chest of drawers from the end of the Louis XVI period around 1780-1790. It opens with 3 drawers on the front. The upper drawer simulates three drawers. It is topped with an original gray Sainte Anne marble. It rests on four spinning top feet. The uprights have fluted half-columns at the corners. Two rounded brass plates are arranged at the top of the columns. Period chest of drawers of good quality and made of very pretty mahogany wood. Very good condition. 18th century period.
