Large Nevers Earthenware Dish Decorated With A Scene Of An Ostrich Hunt - Late 17th Century

3 800 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 49,5cm

Description

Large Nevers earthenware dish decorated in shades of blue with a scene of an ostrich hunt, based on a work by Antonio Tempesta or Johannes Stradanus. The rim is decorated with two Chinese figures, flowering branches alternating with birds, a rabbit, and a snail. Late 17th century. Diameter: 49.5 cm. Restored on the front; visible damage on the back (see photos). Hunting-themed decorations are rare in Nevers pottery; they are more commonly found in Moustiers iconography.
