Description

A timeless work of sacred art This oil-on-wood painting by the "controversial" Maestro Giovagnoli of the Republic of San Marino depicts the face of Jesus as he reflects on his destiny; the softness of his hair and the blue of his robe represent the serenity of his confidence. RSM 1960, signed lower right; H. 50, W. 40.

Undoubtedly, the painterly quality is extraordinary and shines through in every single brushstroke. Thus, the intensity of his gaze captivates the viewer, evoking a unique emotion. An exclusive investment for your collection Purchasing this masterpiece means owning a piece of exceptional art history. Consequently, the work's value is destined to grow over time. Therefore, don't miss the opportunity to enhance your living spaces.
