Description

An exceptional sculptural floor lamp attributed to the renowned Austrian designer Karl Hagenauer, whose bronze and brass creations left their mark on 20th-century Viennese design. This monumental piece depicts an elegant, stylized woman inspired by Primitive Art, with slender, refined lines, holding a large bowl that diffuses indirect light. The contrast between the black-patinated bronze and the gilded bronze elements highlights the refinement of this work, characteristic of the Viennese Art Deco style. Black-patinated bronze and gilded bronze, circa 1950. Height: 169 cm
