Description

An elegant Empire-style console table made of mahogany and gilded bronze, resting on a remarkable base with crossbars joined by a central turned strut. The finely curved legs are adorned with capitals featuring acanthus leaf motifs.The lower section opens with a front drawer adorned with chased bronze appliqués featuring a neoclassical design of palmettes and Empire motifs. The piece is topped by a superb rectangular tabletop in marbled onyx with delicate shades of cream, honey, and gray, offering a particularly decorative natural pattern.With its elegant lines and high-quality materials, this console table will fit equally well in both classic and contemporary interiors. It can be used as an entryway console, a side table, or an accent piece.French craftsmanship in the First
