Description

Exquisite polychrome porcelain vase, attributed to the Famille Rose style. The vase features a globular body, an extruded rim, and two handles decorated with depictions of two dragons in profile. The beauty of this piece is highlighted by the elegant motifs, predominantly in pink, depicting delicate vases with flowers, symbols, geometric decorations, and floral motifs. The bottom bears the manufacturer's mark, consisting of six Chinese ideograms, attesting to its production during the Qing (Qianlong) Dynasty. This vase exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class and antique charm to any setting. Chinese manufacture, Qing period, around the second half of the 18th century. Dimensions: H x DM 59 x 25cm
