Thus, every carved detail tells a story of artisanal excellence that enhances the surrounding space. Exceptional Quality and Unique Details Beyond their aesthetic beauty, the most striking aspect is their condition. In fact, the console tables are in excellent overall condition for their age and are ready for use, without the need for complex restoration work. In short, you can place them immediately in your living room or entryway to impress your guests right away. From a practical standpoint, their proportions are perfect for highlighting prominent walls, as each piece measures 143x71x77cm. Thus, the balance between aesthetics and functionality is complete.
