Description

Flemish earthenware vase from the Art Deco period. From 1900 to 1940, a number of small earthenware workshops were active in the Flanders region. There is not much information available about them. The vase is very beautiful and intact. It is a fine example of this period, and its high quality suggests the work of a skilled craftsman. It is signed "LS" with a "V" below and bears the form number 690.
