Description

A beautiful set of six goblet-shaped cut crystal glasses, the 'Chauny' model by Baccarat, early 20th century; slightly truncated conical in shape, the lower section is adorned with five characteristic rows of facets arranged in a staggered pattern resembling scales, forming a wide band of facets cut into the thickness of the crystal; the two rows at the opposite ends are cut with rounded edges, which further enhances the beauty of these glasses; the upper section near the rim is embellished with four engraved fillets. Very fine quality of luminous crystal with a beautiful resonant tone, accompanied by lovely reflections caused by the refraction of light on the cut facets. A simple yet very "classy" or "chic" design. Height: 10.7 cm / Diameter at the rim: 7.2 cm / Base diameter: 5.6 cm*In perfect
