

"tabsil" Dish, Serghini, Fez, Morocco, 19th Century.

1 800 EUR

Signature : Serghini , Maroc .

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 41 cm

Height : 8 cm

Description

A superb and rare dish (Tabsil), Morocco, Fez, Circular in shape, slightly concave, resting on a ring-shaped base, Made of blue-glazed earthenware on a white background, Painted with blue cobalt oxide and limonite for the yellow, Decorated with a large, mirror-image calligraphic composition of the word "Allah," set against a floral background of bouquets, In good condition for its age; however, there is a chip on the rim, Small chips from normal wear and traces of rust, Signed on the underside with an "S" for Serghini and Fez, A high-quality and rare 19th-century Moroccan piece, Only one example is preserved in the collections of the Batha Museum in Fez, Morocco (inv. 54-794), Additionally, a similar dish was previously offered for sale at RIMENCHERES, Hôtel

Dealer

Francis Le Noir Antiquites

Antiquites Toutes Epoques

Tel : 06 20 33 57 94

16 rue Notre Dame des Monts

La Teste de Buch 33260

Drouot, Room 4, September 30, 2025, Weight:
3,300 gr, Dimensions: Height: 8 cm maximum,
Diameter: 41 cm.