Description

Glazed ceramic column and planter in the style of Clément Massier - Late 19th century
An elegant set consisting of a column and its glazed ceramic planter, in the style of Clément Massier's designs. The set captivates with its neoclassical architecture, its fluted baluster shaft, its rich relief decorations of godrons and plant motifs, as well as its remarkable olive-green glaze with subtle metallic sheen, characteristic of the great decorative productions of the Belle Époque. With its monumental dimensions (total height: 156 cm) and the quality of its craftsmanship, this set is a first-rate decorative piece, ideal for a refined interior. In very good condition. height: 156 cm diameter: 45 cm
