Description

An impressive cabinet made of solid walnut, molded and carved in high relief with honeysuckle flowers. The central section features a cabinet compartment opening with a solid door and a drawer at the base; the door is adorned with a magnificent inlay design of foxgloves. The sides are fitted with overhanging shelves supported by carved twisted posts, each of which has a drawer. The pediment is curved, the lower crossbar has scroll-cutouts, and the base features saber-shaped legs. Original gilded bronze handles and lock plates. Date: 1900-1910.
