Description

Pair of cabriolet armchairs with wide seats. Lyon-made piece from the LouisXV period, circa 1750. Made of solid walnut, with curved, violin-shaped backs, finely carved with small flowers and acanthus leaves. The whip-shaped armrests, the carved curved crossbars, and the molded, arched legs attest to the quality of their craftsmanship. Both cabriolets bear the stamp "NOGARET A LYON" on the rear posts. The upholstery has been completely redone by a professional. Beautiful original patina. Normal wear and tear. In very good condition. *Pierre NOGARET (1718-1771), certified as a master cabinetmaker in Lyon in June 1745. Pierre Nogaret was born in Paris in 1718 and remained the undisputed master of the Lyon furniture-making tradition during the reign
