Description

Large wall tapestry depicting "The Lady and the Unicorn", inspired by the famous series of medieval tapestries housed at the Cluny Museum in Paris. This elegant tapestry features one of the most famous themes in medieval French art: the Lady flanked by a lion and a unicorn, set against a sumptuous red "millefleurs" background adorned with a multitude of finely rendered animals and plants. The richness of the design, the finesse of the weaving, and the harmony of the colors make this a decorative piece of great character. With its generous dimensions, this tapestry serves as a true focal point of interior design. It will fit perfectly in a living room, library, dining room, or castle, creating a warm and timeless atmosphere. Presented in excellent condition, it will appeal to both tapestry
